

Reading Workshop Project Rubric Mr. Harrison's "Critics of Language" Course

	5 or lower	6 points	8 points	10 points
Persuasive Purpose Achieved	The project shows no attempt to be persuasive, and it will need to be re-submitted for a grade.	The final project, if/when shared with other students, will persuade some of them to want to look into the book for themselves. The project incorporated one persuasive technique that the student can explain to the teacher, if asked.	The final project, if/when shared with other students, will persuade most of them to want to look into the book for themselves. The project has incorporated several persuasive techniques that the student can to the teacher, if asked.	The final project, if/when shared with other students, will persuade them to want to look into the book for themselves. The project has incorporated many persuasive techniques that the student can explain to the teacher, if asked.
Shows Knowledge of the Entire Book's Story Elements	The project does not directly refer to any of the bullet listed at right, and it will need to be re-submitted for a grade or receive a zero.	From the book, the final project shares interesting and important details about one of the following, or it provides only simple information about more than two: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Setting • Characters • Conflicts from plot • Theme/Message • Writing style of the author 	From the book, the final project shares interesting and important details about three of the following, or it provides only simple information about more than three: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Setting • Characters • Conflicts from plot • Theme/Message • Writing style of the author 	From the book, the final project shares interesting and important details about all five of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Setting • Characters • Conflicts from plot • Theme/Message • Writing style of the author
Polished Final Product	The project contains more than 10 conventional mistakes from the bullets at right, and it will need to be re-submitted for a grade.	The final project still features between 4 and 10 mistakes in these areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Correct spelling • Correct punctuation • Correct use of challenging and appropriate vocabulary words • Book titles are always underlined. 	The project shows almost flawless conventional skills in these areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Correct spelling • Correct punctuation • Correct use of challenging and appropriate vocabulary words • Book titles are always underlined. 	The project shows flawless conventional skills in these areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Correct spelling • Correct punctuation • Correct use of challenging and appropriate vocabulary words • Book titles are always underlined.