TRI-bute Page Brainstorming Worksheet

Instructions: Work with your partner/group to fill each of the three boxes with intelligent words and ideas about the topic you've learned about in class today.

Our TRI-bute Page topic: _____

T (circle one of the following adjectives that best relates to the topic of your TRI-bute page... or...

...brainstorm your own 'T' word:)

Talented	Tasty	Tender	Tolerant	Thankful
Trustworthy	Thriving	Therapeutic	Tactful	Tenacious

Next create a three- or four-sentence description of your topic that either a) hides the word you circled somewhere in the sentences you've written as a group, or 2) explains several reasons—with details—why your topic and the word relate to each other.

R (circle one of the following nouns that best relates to the topic of your TRI-bute page...or...

...brainstorm your own 'R' word:)

Respect	Reliability	Relief	Refreshment	Relaxation
Risk	Readiness	Resilience	Responsibility	Reverence

Next create a three- or four-sentence description of your topic that either a) hides the word you circled somewhere in the sentences you've written as a group, or 2) explains several reasons—with details—why your topic and the word relate to each other.

(circle one of the following adjectives that best relates to the topic of your tribute page...or...

...brainstorm your own
'I' word:)

Imaginative	Intelligent	Interesting	Ingenious	Insightful
Inspired	Invigorated	Influential	Inventive	Intrepid

Next create a three- or four-sentence description of your topic that either a) hides the word you circled somewhere in the sentences you've written as a group, or 2) explains several reasons—with details—why your topic and the word relate to each other.

Next...Divide a piece of scratch paper into three sections, saving room for possible visuals for the page, and improve upon your original written ideas, tone, or word choice that you wrote in the three boxes on this planning sheet.
