

Zany Zombie “Beast-Row” Bistro

Braaaains! Oops, I mean—Greetings! Welcome to the world’s first zombie-themed bistro. This restaurant is run by zombies, for zombies. We know what you crave (brains, of course!) and we like to whip up new items up all the time. We are so glad that you decided to join us today. Prepare to be wowed and possibly tasted by other patrons.

This model was created by teacher Dena Harrison and is part of an entire creative writing lesson found online at the “Always Write” website: <http://corbettharrison.com>

Appetizers!

Haitian-Styled Brain-tato skins- These mouth-watering potato skins are filled with everything a Caribbean zombie loves: cheese, bacon, fried brain sprinklings, and the perfect amount of cayenne pepper. Spice-a-licious! 6.95

Brazilian Brain Sliders: We hand-picked the juiciest brain patties and nestled them between two freshly-baked sesame seed buns. Our seasoned brain patties are cooked to perfection based upon your preference, and are dripping with Vermont cheddar. As a bonus, we add fresh, hand-picked cilantro to the top. Viva Brazil! 7.95

Entrees!

Brains Tartar: This is your favorite food in its purest form. We obtain the freshest brains and marinate them in their own juices. These free range human brains are served raw and slightly warmed in a beautiful silver tray. Want simplicity? 10.95

Brain-zagna: That’s right, we take an old favorite— lasagna—and add the finest sautéed ground brains to the mix. These delicious brains are complemented by our homemade red sauce and lots of cheese. Hungry yet? 11.95

Desserts!

Sugared Brains a la mode: Our chef carefully takes a brain and rolls it in sugar to create the most delicious crust. This is then topped with your choice of a dollop of ice cream or fresh whipped cream. Your choice! 5.95

Brain-cano cake: A dessert for our chocolate loving zombies! We improve upon the volcano cake by adding our favorite ingredient—brains! Our chocolate cake is dense and the middle is filled with melted chocolate and grated brain chunks. Prepare to be wowed! 7.95
