

The M.S Restaurant

Hello, welcome to The Middle School Restaurant where you can see just how middle schoolers these days eat. After I share these specials and take your order I will be back shortly.

Specials:

Our first special is your choice of Takis because let's be honest here, that's the only chips any middle schooler ever wants. Each Taki carefully spiced the right amount to the point where your kids will fall in love.

Our next special is your choice of any fresh bowl of cereal. We have plenty of options and each little flake, puff, or oat is hand crafted by our infamous chef. Our pure white milk mixed with the cereal creates a taste you will never forget.

Beverages:

Our first beverage is your choice of Starbucks coffee because I don't know a middle schooler who doesn't like Starbucks. Each cup or glass of coffee was carefully made with scientific amounts and I'm sure that instead of going to Starbucks that you will be coming here instead.

Our next beverage is any soda because the closest craving to Starbucks is soda to kids at least. Our state of the art soda isn't like normal soda, it is carefully made with the right amounts of carbonation that will pop in in the cup creating such a craving noise that it will be gone in no time.

Desserts:

Our first dessert is any choice of candy from chocolate to gummy because isn't that the only thing your kids want. Our chef makes our candy with such care I'm sure your kids won't be disappointed.

Our next dessert is our brownies. Each bite you will savor as the chocolaty dish is so soft and good your kids won't stop eating them.

So, are you ready to take your order?
