

Four-line Prepositional Phrase Poem:

Line one: Preposition + descriptive noun phrase [+ comma]

Line two: Preposition + descriptive noun phrase [+ comma]

Line three: Preposition + descriptive noun phrase [+ comma]

Line one: Subject + Verb or Verb + Subject [+period]

An example preposition poem:

Over the frozen river,
On a snowy, wooded path at midnight,
Between trees that resemble giants,
Flies our horse-drawn carriage.

Above the root-scarred soil,
Below the gnarly tree's branches,
In front of the August lakeshore,
Hangs the swing that started it all.

Write your own preposition poem based on the same picture?

Here are common English prepositions to begin your poem's first three lines with: above, across, after, against, among, apart from, around, at, because of, before, behind, between, beyond, by, despite, down by, down near, during, except for, for, from, in, including, in front of, into, in to, like, near, nearby, off of, on, onto, on to, on top of, out of, over, plus, since, through, throughout, to, towards, under, upon, up on, with, within, without

Write your own four-line prepositional phrase poem inspired by the picture at right. Use description!

